

Reading & Praying the Bible at the beginning of the 21st Century

PATHWAYS 2016-2017

This year the members of Pathways will be studying the Hebrew Scripture (The Law/Teaching, the prophets and the Writings) and the Christian Bible (Old Testament and New), with some time given to the Qur'an. These are the grounding documents for the spiritual traditions of the West. The study aims at being both faithful and critical. Rabbi Jonathan Sacks and James Carroll will provide both background and challenge.

We are reading in the 21st century. Two authors will give us insight into our time: Ilia Delio, OSF, who has a background in science and theology, writes of catholicity ("according to the whole"), quantum physics, evolution and God; Ken Wilber shows us Integral Consciousness, which includes both psycho-social development and four types of mysticism.

The Bible can give us a meta-narrative that can guide us in the troubling yet exciting times.
